CURRENT INTELLIGENCE MEMORANDUM

SUBJECT: Security Conditions on the President's Trip to Europe

1. There have been no developments in any of the countries on the President's itinerary which alter the conclusions reached in SNIE 20-63.

2. West Germany: There may be some increased possibility of demonstrations in favor of reunification, which was the principal theme of addresses commemorating the 10th anniversary of the 17 June uprising. There are no indications, however, that the Communists plan to take disruptive action.

4. Italy: The possibility of overt political demonstrations has increased in the past few days because of the failure of Party Secretary Moro's efforts to form a new government.
